The Farmers Institute.

The Farmers' Institute, held last Friday and Saturday, was a very gratifying success. The attendance on Friday was not as large as expected, but on Saturday the Court Room was crowded.

Many ladies from town and country being in attendance.

Mr. John A. Shaw, the president, was sick and not able to attend.

Mr. Homer Stiers was elected president and throughout the convention conducted the business with judgement and dispatch.

The program was followed closely and free discussion afforded all who desired to ask questions or submit suggestions.

The state lecturers, Messrs. Derthick and Trumbo, gave excellent satisfaction and made suggestions which will be profitable to the intelligent farmers who heard them.

Judge Bright made a pleasant speech on training boys. Senator Lowry spoke of the methods by which legislation was sometimes secured.

Mrs. Lee read an interesting paper on the farmer as a social factor, and Mr. Cherry and J. A. Mathias presented the advantages of fruit culture, the methods of planting, the variety to plant and the variety of tree and fruit.

Mr. Green inquired if fertilized seed wheat requires fertilizer in the soil; Mr. T. Brown held up as the "best apple" the Ben Davis, while other farmers suggested as best different varieties of apples and potatoes.

Mr. Shultz read a very amusing poem on the care of sheep and Mr. Derthick gave a happy discourse upon the horse.

The Garden Brothers and Reinster of Ilesboro, furnished most excellent music.

The following officers were elected: Pres. W. N. England, Vice Pres G. W. Marks, Secy. E. Shultz, Ex. Secy. J. A. Mathias, J. A. Mathias, Homer Hamel, Homer Stiers.

It is proposed to hold a summer meeting, along some time in June, a business meeting in the Court Room, a picnic festival in the grove.

The thanks of the Sentinel are due to Secretary Shultz for courtes extended. The grip had a previous hold on the staff and the report of proceedings are not as complete as the interest in the affair would require.

A resolution offered by Mr. E. Shultz and unanimously adopted, invited Prosecuting Attorney Pettit to make a statement concerning the charge of drawing illegal fees by County officials. Mr. Pettit read the law and pledged himself to prosecute, when cases are properly presented.

Mr. J. R. Smith, game warden, had the announcement made that he will furnish Mongolian Pheasant eggs, and 6-sh for private ponds to all who request; that he will prosecute any violation of the game laws, and request the farmers to co-operate with him.
